“This Sacred Pilgrimage” starts at Sohonzan Shoshinkan at 8am, then visits Miraikan, Nikko-Shoja, Nasu-Shoja and then returns and ends in Sohonzan Shoshinkan. At each Head Temple you attend prayer in the Main Prayer Hall. This very sacred pilgrimage represents the mission of Lord El Cantare. To visit each temple we deepen our Faith, Love, Enlightenment and Pledge to Create Utopia as disciples of Lord El Cantare. Members can stay at Miraikan on Sunday April 6th. This sacred pilgrimage is a deeply moving experience!

Sohonzan Shoshinkan

Opened in August 1996, the very first head temple of Happy Science. In the solemn grand prayer hall, a great statue of Lord El Cantare is enshrined. Many believers visit here to worship, and attend seminars and ritual prayer ceremonies. This is a home for our souls in which we can feel the peaceful state of mind as if we are embraced in the arms of Buddha.

Sohonzon Miraikan

Opened in November 1997, this is our second head temple, on which the light of development and prosperity shines. In the prayer hall, a statue of Lord El Cantare in Greek feature is enshrined. This is a huge spiritual ground for ritual prayer, where you can feel a clear wind of prosperity always blowing. Many who attend ritual prayers visit here.

Sohonzan Nikko-Shoja

Opened in July 1998, this is our third head temple, and has a Buddhist image. It maintains the atmosphere of a spiritual discipline hall, so in its sublimity we can feel serenity that extends throughout the place. From the golden statue of Lord El Cantare in the prayer hall, we feel Buddha's compassion, inviting us to higher enlightenment.

Sohonzan Nasu-Shoja

Opened in May 2004, this temple is our fourth head temple, situated in the Nasu mountain ranges. In the beautiful vast grounds, we can imagine utopia of the heavenly world. Nasu Shoja is the inner sanctuary of Happy Science Head Temples and final resting place of Master Okawa. Together let us make the eternal pledge to live with the Lord through our eternal lives.

Overhead View of the Entire Campus

"I, who was raised in a financially challenged family in Shikoku, deeply appreciate education for opening a path in my life. Education has a magic-like power. It is something that gives us true confidence as we continue to make efforts. I now realize that there is no royal road to learning. The path opens to those who give efforts." The Laws of Education, Postscript
